“Part 4 permission” has the meaning given in section 40(4) of the Act;

Effect of restrictions and prohibitions under the 1985 Order

3.—(1) Where immediately before commencement an unauthorised credit union was subject to a direction under Article 59 of the 1985 Order, that direction has effect from commencement as if it were a requirement imposed on that credit union under section 43 of the Act (imposition of requirements).

(2) For the purposes of rules and guidance made before commencement by the Authority under Part 10 of the Act (rules and guidance) that relate to credit unions(5), a credit union which, immediately before commencement—

- (a) did not hold a certificate under Article 28C of the 1985 Order(6) is to be treated from commencement as a version 1 credit union for the purposes of the Credit Unions Sourcebook(7); or

Approved persons

4.—(1) Where, at commencement, a person (“P”) is performing a function for an unauthorised credit union under an arrangement entered into by that credit union or by a contractor of that credit union, if P’s continued performance of that function after commencement would, but for this article, require the approval of the Authority under section 59(1) or (2) of the Act (approval), then that continued performance by P of that function after commencement is to be taken to have been approved by the Authority for the purposes of section 59 of the Act.

(2) Paragraph (1) does not apply if P performs a function by virtue of the fact that P holds or has held an office in a credit union and, immediately before commencement, P was ineligible by virtue of Article 39 of the 1985 Order to hold that office.

Requirement to reapply for Part 4 permission

5.—(1) At any time on or before 31st March 2014, the Authority may give a direction under this article to a named unauthorised credit union or a specified class of unauthorised credit unions.

(2) A direction under this article is a direction that each credit union named or falling within the specified class must, before a date so specified, apply to the Authority under section 40 of the Act for permission to carry on the regulated activities which it wishes to carry on.

(3) Section 40(2) of the Act does not apply in relation to an application made in pursuance of the direction.

(4) If a credit union fails to comply with the direction, the Authority must consider whether to exercise the power in section 45 of the Act (variation etc. on the Authority’s own initiative)(8) and, for this purpose, section 45(1) applies as if there was added after sub-paragraph (c)—

(d) the person has failed to comply with a direction given by the Authority under article 5(1) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Permissions, Transitional Provisions and Consequential Amendments) (Northern Ireland Credit Unions) Order 2011”.

(5) If a credit union complies with the direction but the application which it makes pursuant to it is refused, its Part 4 permission ceases to have effect on such date as the Authority may in its decision notice specify or, if no date is specified, when the matter is no longer open to review.

(6) If a credit union complies with the direction and the Authority gives it a Part 4 permission, that permission has effect on such date as may be specified in the Authority’s written notice in place of the Part 4 permission which the credit union had by virtue of article 2.

(7) For the purposes of this article and article 6, whether a matter is open to review is to be determined in accordance with section 391(8) of the Act.

(8) A direction given under this article or article 6 before commencement has effect on commencement.

Requirement to reapply for approved person status

6.—(1) At any time on or before 31st March 2014, the Authority may give a direction under this article to a named unauthorised credit union or a specified class of unauthorised credit unions.

(2) A direction under this article is a direction that each credit union named or falling within the specified class must, before a date so specified, apply to the Authority under section 60 of the Act (applications for approval) for approval under section 59(1) or (2) of the Act in relation to the performance by P of the function referred to in article 4(1).

(8) Section 45 was amended by the Financial Services Act 2010 (c.28), section 3(1) and (3) and S.I. 2007/126.

(3) If a credit union fails to comply with the direction, the Authority must consider whether to exercise the power in section 63(1) of the Act (withdrawal of approval) to withdraw the approval P is taken to have by virtue of article 4(1), and for this purpose, section 63 applies as if for “given under section 59” there is substituted “taken to have been given under section 59 by virtue of article 4(1) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Permissions, Transitional Provisions and Consequential Amendments) (Northern Ireland Credit Unions) Order 2011”.

(4) If a credit union complies with the direction but the application which it makes in pursuance of it is refused, P’s performance of the function ceases to be taken to have been approved by the Authority on such date as the Authority may in its decision notice specify or, if no date is specified, when the matter is no longer open to review.

(5) If a credit union complies with the direction and in response to its application the Authority approves the performance by P of the controlled function, that approval has effect on such date as may be specified in the Authority’s written notice in place of the approval which the credit union was taken to have by virtue of article 4(1).

Requirements to reapply: procedure

7.—(1) A direction given under article 5 or 6 must state the reasons why it has been given to the named credit union or specified class of credit unions.

(2) The date specified in a direction under article 5(2) or 6(2) must be such as to allow a reasonable time for compliance, and in any event must fall after the end of three months beginning with the date when the direction has effect.

(3) If the Authority gives a direction under article 5 or 6, it must as soon as practicable, and in any event not later than the due date, give a copy to each named credit union and to each credit union which falls, or which it considers may on the due date, fall within the specified class of credit unions.

(4) If the Authority fails to give a copy of the direction to a credit union by the due date, the direction (and therefore articles 5(4) and 6(3)) do not apply to it. But if the Authority gives the credit union a copy of the direction after the due date the direction has effect in relation to that credit union as if the date specified under article 5(2) or 6(2) were three months after the date on which the copy was given to that credit union, and the copy must indicate that fact.

(5) In this article, “due date” means the date three months before the date specified in a direction.

(6) Any failure by the Authority to comply with paragraph (3) does not invalidate the direction in relation to any credit union to which a copy is given in accordance with this article.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order makes transitional provisions and consequential amendments relating to the revocation, on 31st March 2012, of the exemption for Northern Ireland credit unions from the general prohibition imposed by section 19 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (c.8) (“the Act”). The exemption, contained in paragraph 24A of the Schedule to the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Exemption) Order 2001 (S.I. 2001/1201), is revoked by S.I. 2011/2716.

Article 2 provides that all credit unions which are not authorised persons (“unauthorised credit unions”) are to be treated, at 31st March 2012 (“commencement”), as having permission under Part 4 of the Act to accept deposits by way of subscription for their shares or from a minor. Article 3 provides that restrictions or prohibitions imposed on a credit union before commencement under Article 59 of the Credit Unions (Northern Ireland) Order 1985 (S.I. 1985/1205 (N.I. 12)) (“the 1985 Order”) have effect from commencement as if they were requirements imposed under section 43 of the Act and provides for how credit unions should be categorised under the Financial Services Authority’s Handbook. Article 4 provides that where, at commencement, a person is performing a controlled function for an unauthorised credit union, the continued performance of the function by that person after commencement is to be taken to have been approved by the Authority for the purposes of section 59.

Article 5 enables the Authority to require credit unions of a specified description to reapply for permission. The Authority may impose such a requirement before commencement but the requirement does not have effect until commencement. Article 6 enables the Authority to require credit unions of a specified description to reapply for the Authority’s approval under section 59 in respect of the performance by a person of a controlled function. Article 7 sets out procedural provisions that relate to these requirements.

Article 8 enables credit unions from 31st December 2011 (“applications day”) to apply for a variation of a requirement to which they will, by virtue of article 5, be subject from commencement. Applications may also be made for approval of persons who will, after commencement, be subject to the regime established under Part 5 of the Act (approved persons). The Authority may also initiate action under section 45 of the Act (exercise of own initiative powers) or section 56 (prohibition orders) from applications day but nothing done under the Act by virtue of this article takes effect before commencement.

Article 9 enables the Authority, from applications day, to exercise its powers under section 165 of the Act (information gathering) in relation to those credit unions which it has reasonable grounds to believe will be authorised persons at commencement.

Article 10 amends the 1985 Order before commencement expressly to permit the registrar to share information relating to credit unions with the Financial Services Authority.

Article 11 modifies the definition of “consumer” in section 391 of the Act for a transitional period until 31st March 2014 to include those who used the services provided by a credit union while it was not an authorised person.

Article 12 makes technical amendments to the Dormant Bank and Building Society Accounts Act 2008 (c.31) and the Banking Act 2009 (c.1) to maintain, after commencement, the position of Northern Ireland credit unions as regards the application of those Acts.

Article 13 amends the 1985 Order. Article 4(2) of the Order is amended so as to provide that the registrar, a function held by the Department of Enterprise, Trade and Investment, shall not issue an acknowledgement of registration unless the Financial Services Authority (“the FSA”) proposes to give that credit union permission under Part 4 of the Act to accept deposits. Provisions of the 1985 Order which relate to matters which are also dealt with under the Act itself are revoked or amended. Similarly, provisions which relate to matters on which the FSA could make rules under the Act are also revoked.

Article 14 revokes certain instruments and rules which were made under the 1985 Order and in relation to which the FSA could make rules under the Act.

Article 15 requires the Treasury to review the operation and effect of articles 12 to 14 and publish a report within five years after they come into force and within every five years after that. Following a review it will fall to the Treasury to consider whether the legislative amendments made by this Order should remain as they are, or be revoked or amended. A further instrument would be needed to revoke or amend them.

No separate impact assessment has been prepared for this instrument. An impact assessment of the effect that bringing Northern Ireland credit unions under the 2000 Act will have on the costs of business and the voluntary sector is available from the Mutuels Team, HM Treasury, 1 Horse Guards Road, London SW1A 2HQ and is published with the Explanatory Memorandum alongside S.I. 2011/2716 on legislation.gov.uk.
