The Local Authorities (Referendums)
(Petitions)(England) Regulations 2011

PART 2

Petitions and Referendums

Petitions for a referendum

6.—(1) Subject to regulation 7, a local authority shall hold a referendum by virtue of this Part where they receive a valid petition (but shall not be required to hold such a referendum where they receive a petition which is not a valid petition).

(2) A petition may be presented to a local authority—

- (a) by properly addressing, pre-paying and posting it to any office of the authority; or
- (b) by delivering it to any such office.
