EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order, made under sections 51(1) and (2) and 52(1) of the Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006 (“the 2006 Act”), enables the Secretary of State to both set fees for applications related to immigration or nationality and to charge for the provision of services or processes related to immigration or nationality. Once this Order comes into force the Secretary of State will be able to make regulations under section 51(3) of the 2006 Act setting out the relevant fees and charges.

This Order will replace the Immigration and Nationality (Fees) Order 2007 which has enabled the Secretary of State to make regulations under section 51(3) of the 2006 Act fixing fees and charges in relation to applications, services and processes connected with immigration and nationality since 15th March 2007. This will happen when regulations under section 51(3) of the 2006 Act setting the level of the fees and charges covered in this Order come into force.
