INSTRUCTIONS TO THE VOTER

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE VOTER

1. You must sign this declaration of identity in the presence of a person known to you. You are required to do this even if you have already signed a similar declaration of identity in respect of another election to be held on the same day. That person should then sign this declaration as a witness, adding his or her name and address. Unless you are voting as a proxy, you must also give your date of birth. Without all the above the declaration will be invalid and your vote will not be counted.

2. Mark your vote by putting "1" against the candidate of your first choice, "2" against the candidate of your second choice and so on. Do this secretly. If you cannot vote without assistance, the person assisting you must not disclose how you have voted.

3. You may show your preference for as many or as few candidates as you wish but you should not show the same preference against more than one candidate. Put no other mark on the ballot paper, or your vote may not be counted.

4. Different colours are used for the ballot papers for each election. Each ballot paper has its own ballot paper envelope (the smaller envelope marked 'A'), declaration of identity and covering envelope (the larger envelope marked 'B'). The covering envelope and declaration of identity for a particular declaration of identity are those which refer to the colour of that ballot paper. It is important that you use the correct envelopes and declaration of identity, otherwise your vote may not be counted. You may find it helpful to sort the documents into separate sets, each consisting of a ballot paper, ballot paper envelope, declaration of identity and covering envelope. Then proceed as follows-

- (a) place each ballot paper in the correct smaller envelope and seal it;
- (b) put the envelope, together with the correct declaration of identity, in the correct covering envelope and seal it;
- (c) return the covering envelopes without delay. Ballot papers must be received by the returning officer not later than the close of poll.

5. If you receive more than one ballot paper, remember that it is illegal to vote more than once (otherwise than as proxy) at the same election. You are entitled to vote at different elections which are held on the same day.

6. At this election you cannot vote in person at a polling station, even if you receive an official poll card.

7. If you inadvertently spoil your ballot paper, you can apply to the returning officer for another one. With your application you must return, in your own envelope, the spoiled ballot paper, the declaration of identity (make sure it is the correct one) and the envelopes marked "A" and "B" (again make sure they are the correct envelopes). Remember that there is little time available if a fresh ballot paper is to be issued and counted.

Modification of absent voting provisions

24. Part 3 of Schedule 2 to the 1985 Order (issue and receipt of ballot papers) applies as if—

- (a) in paragraph 1 (interpretation)(a), after the definition of “returning officer” there were inserted—
- “the European Parliamentary election” has the meaning given in rule 3B of the local elections rules.”;
- (b) after paragraph 1 there were inserted—

“Combination of polls

- 1A. The proceedings on the issue and receipt of postal ballot papers in respect of the local election and the European Parliamentary election must be taken together.”;
- (c) in paragraph 6 (procedure on issue of postal ballot paper)(b), after sub-paragraph (2) there were inserted—
- “(2A) The colour of the postal ballot paper must also be marked on the declaration of identity sent with that paper.”; and
- (d) in paragraph 8 (ballot paper envelope)(c) after sub-paragraph (1B) there were inserted—
- “(1C) The covering envelope must also be marked “Covering envelope for the [insert colour of ballot paper] coloured ballot paper”.
- (1D) On the ballot paper envelope after the words “Ballot paper envelope” there must be added “for the [insert colour of ballot paper] coloured ballot paper”.”.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

As a result of legislation enacted by the Northern Ireland Assembly, Northern Ireland will be divided into 11 local government districts rather than the existing 26 local government districts. To ensure a smooth transition to the local government districts, Northern Ireland legislation provides for the creation of statutory transition committees and for the new councils to operate in parallel with the existing councils for a transitional period. To facilitate this, elections to the new councils need to be brought forward by one year.

This Order makes amendments to electoral law in Northern Ireland which are consequential on the following Northern Ireland legislation on local government reform: the Local Government (Boundaries) Act (Northern Ireland) 2008 (c. 7); the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act (Northern Ireland) 2010 (c. 7); the Local Government (Boundaries) Order (Northern Ireland) 2012 (S.R. 2012/421); the Local Government (Statutory Transition Committees) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2013 (S.R. 2013/179) and the Local Government (Boundaries) (2008 Act) (Commencement, Transitional Provision and Savings) Order (Northern Ireland) 2013 (S.R. 2013/238). The latter legislation provides for the commencement of the new local government districts on 3rd October 2013 for the purpose of elections to the new councils, which means that any reference to a district council for the purpose of an election in 2014 will be a reference to a new council. It also provides for the division of powers and functions between the existing district councils and the new district councils during the transitional period.

Article 3(2) and 3(3) of this Order provides for the date of the first elections to the new district councils and amends the definition of “election day”.

(a) Paragraph 1 was amended by S.I. 1987/168 and S.I. 2010/2977.

(b) Paragraph 6 was amended by S.I. 1987/168 and S.I. 2010/2977. In addition, section 4 of, and the Schedule to, the Elections Act 2001 (c. 7) made a non-textual amendment to paragraph 6, inserting sub-paragraph (3) in cases where the polls at parliamentary elections and local elections are taken together.

(c) Paragraph 8 was amended by S.I. 2005/2969 and S.I. 2010/2977. In addition, section 4 of, and the Schedule to, the Elections Act 2001 (c. 7) made a non-textual amendment to paragraph 8, inserting sub-paragraph (2), when local elections are combined with parliamentary elections.

Article 3(4) allows persons who are in the polling station or in a queue outside the polling station at the close of the poll to apply for a ballot paper.

Article 4 provides that the existing councillors will retire on 1st April 2015, that vacancies in those councils will be filled until 1st January 2015 and that the register in force on the day that a councillor was elected will, for the purpose of establishing whether that councillor is qualified to continue, remain in force until the existing councillors retire.

Article 5 makes modifications which apply only in respect of the first election to new district councils in 2014. For the purpose of those elections: any advance on election expenses will be paid by the statutory transition committee for the relevant new council, and the final election expenses will be paid by the elected new council; the deputy returning officer will be a person appointed for that purpose by the statutory transition committee for that new council.

Article 6 modifies the Electoral Law (Polling Station Scheme) (Northern Ireland) Regulations 2010 to require the Chief Electoral Officer for Northern Ireland to publish a draft polling station scheme as soon as practicable after 1st February 2014. It also shortens the consultation period for that draft scheme in light of the short time before the first election to the new councils on 22nd May 2014.

Article 7 makes amendments to the process for the appointment of the Drainage Council under the Drainage (Northern Ireland) Order 1973. Usually, appointment is made as soon as practicable after a local election takes place in the relevant appointment year. As no local election will take place in 2015 the appointment should instead take place as soon as practicable after the new councillors take up their full powers, and the existing councillors retire, on 1st April 2015. During the transitional period, eligibility to serve as a member of the Drainage Council as a representative of a district council will continue to relate to membership of an existing council (see article 5, S.R. 2013/238).

Article 8 provides for the provisions of the 1962 Act to apply to the filling of casual vacancies within both existing councils and new councils during the transitional period.

Article 9 makes consequential amendments in relation to polling districts and polling places in parliamentary elections. Until now, the polling districts and places for parliamentary elections tracked those for local elections. This can no longer continue because local government boundaries will be different to parliamentary boundaries. The amendments provide that the parliamentary polling districts will be designated by the Secretary of State and kept under review. The parliamentary polling places in those districts will be designated by the Chief Electoral Officer for Northern Ireland and that officer will be required to review those polling places in 2014 and every five years thereafter. Where certain persons or bodies make representations to the Electoral Commission about a review of polling places, it will have a power to direct that the polling places be altered or to make the alteration itself.

Article 10 and the Schedule make amendments to allow local elections to be held together with European Parliamentary elections in 2014.

An impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no impact on the private or voluntary sectors is foreseen.
