Transitory and saving provision

4. Until section 17(2) of the Act comes into force for all purposes, section 92 of the Nationality, Immigration and Asylum Act 2002(a) (appeal from within the United Kingdom: general) has effect in any case in which a foreign criminal as defined in section 117D(2) of that Act (as inserted by section 19 of the Act) has made a human rights claim which the Secretary of State has certified under section 94B of that Act (as inserted by section 17(3) of the Act) as if—

- (a) the reference in subsection (2) to an immigration decision of a kind specified in section 82(2)(j) of that Act were omitted;
- (b) the reference in subsection (4)(a) to a human rights claim were omitted; and
- (c) subsection (4)(b) were omitted.

5. The commencement of section 44 does not have effect in relation to an appeal in respect of a penalty notice issued before 28th July 2014 (including a penalty notice issued before that date but withdrawn and, after that date, re-issued).

(a) 2002 c. 41; subsection (2) was amended by section 47(7) of the Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006 (c.13) and subsection (4)(b) was amended by S.I. 2011/1043; there are other amendments but none is relevant.

6. The commencement of section 45 does not have effect in relation to a sum payable to the Secretary of State as a penalty under section 15 of the Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006(a) if proceedings for the enforcement of the penalty were commenced before 28th July 2014.

7.—(1) During the relevant period “chargeable function” in section 70 of the Act is to be read as a reference to an application, service or process in connection with immigration or nationality in respect of which a fee is chargeable pursuant to the Immigration and Nationality (Fees Order) 2011(b).

(2) In paragraph (1), the relevant period means the period beginning on 28th July 2014 and ending on the date the first fees order made under section 68 of the Act comes into force.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order is the first commencement order made under the Immigration Act 2014 (“the Act”). Article 2 lists the provisions of the Act which will come into force on 14th July 2014. Article 3 lists the provisions of the Act which will come into force on 28th July 2014.

Article 4 makes provision in relation to the operation of section 92 of the Nationality, Immigration and Asylum Act 2002 (appeal from within the United Kingdom) until that provision is fully substituted by section 17(2) of the Act. Article 5 makes saving provision relating to the process for objecting and appealing to a penalty notice issued to an employer under section 15 of the Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006 (“the 2006 Act”). Article 6 makes saving provision in respect of proceedings for the enforcement of a sum payable as a penalty under section 15 of the 2006 Act.

Article 7 makes transitory provision in relation to section 70 and provides that, pending the coming into force of the first fees order under the 2014 Act, the term “chargeable function” in the relevant section is to be read as a reference to an application, service or process set out in the Immigration and Nationality (Fees) Order 2014.
