The Tribunal Procedure (First-tier Tribunal)
(Immigration and Asylum Chamber) Rules 2014

PART 4

Correcting, Setting Aside, Reviewing and Appealing Tribunal Decisions

Review of a decision

- 35.—(1) The Tribunal may only undertake a review of a decision—
- (a) pursuant to rule 34 (review on an application for permission to appeal); and
  - (b) if it is satisfied that there was an error of law in the decision.
- (2) The Tribunal must notify the parties in writing of the outcome of any review, and of any right of appeal in relation to the outcome.
- (3) If the Tribunal takes any action in relation to a decision following a review without first giving every party an opportunity to make representations—
- (a) the notice under paragraph (2) must state that any party that did not have an opportunity to make representations may apply for such action to be set aside; and
  - (b) the Tribunal may regard the review as incomplete and act accordingly.
