- (b) except where the other person is the determining authority, the other person consents to the notice or document being sent by those means.

(2) A person who has provided an e-mail address is to be treated as consenting to a document being sent by e-mail.

(2) Where the relevant legislation does not require the information contained in the document to be communicated or made available, the registration authority may refuse to permit inspection, or copies to be taken, of that document.

(3) In this regulation and in regulation 53, “relevant legislation” means the Environmental Information Regulations 2004(1) or the Freedom of Information Act 2000(2).
