- 23.—(1) Each consultee who is, by virtue of section 54 of the 2004 Act and article 22, under a duty to respond to consultation, must give to the Secretary of State, not later than 1st July in each year, a report as to that consultee’s compliance with section 54(4) of the 2004 Act.
- (2) The report must relate to the period of 12 months commencing on 1st April in the preceding year (“the report year”).
- (3) The report must contain, in respect of any report year—
- (a) a statement as to the number of occasions on which the consultee was consulted by a person other than a local planning authority;
 - (b) a statement as to the number of occasions on which a substantive response was given to a person other than a local planning authority within the period referred to in section 54(4) of the 2004 Act;
 - (c) a statement as to the number of occasions on which the consultee was consulted by a local planning authority;

⁽⁵⁾ Paragraph 4(2) of Schedule 1 was amended by sections 19(2) and 84 of, and paragraph 53 of Schedule 7 and Part 1 of Schedule 19 to, the Planning and Compensation Act 1991 (c. 34).

⁽⁶⁾ 1990 c. 9. Paragraph 3 of Schedule 4 was substituted by paragraph 61 of Schedule 7 to the Planning and Compensation Act 1991 (c. 34) and amended by sections 78 and 120 of, and paragraph 33(7) of Schedule 10 and Schedule 24 to, the Environment Act 1995 (c. 25).

- (d) a statement as to the number of occasions on which a substantive response was given to a local planning authority within the period referred to in section 54(4) of the 2004 Act; and
- (e) in relation to occasions on which the consultee has given a substantive response outside the period referred to in section 54(4) of the 2004 Act, a summary of the reasons why the consultee failed to comply with the duty to respond within that period.

Recommendations by district planning authority before determination of county matters application

24.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), a county planning authority must, before determining—

- (a) an application for planning permission under Part 3 of the 1990 Act (control over development),
- (b) an application for a certificate of lawful use or development under section 191 or 192 of the 1990 Act (certificates of lawfulness of existing or proposed use or development)(7), or
- (c) an application for approval of reserved matters, give the district planning authority, if any, for the area in which the relevant land lies a period of at least 21 days, from the date of receipt of the application by the district authority, within which to make recommendations about the manner in which the application must be determined; and must take any such recommendations into account.

(2) Paragraph (1) does not prevent a county planning authority determining an application if before the end of the period referred to in that paragraph—

- (a) the county planning authority have received recommendations concerning the application from the district planning authority; or
- (b) the district planning authority give notice to the county planning authority that they do not intend to make recommendations.

(3) A county planning authority must—

- (a) on determining an application of a kind mentioned in paragraph (1), as soon as reasonably practicable notify the district planning authority, if any, of the terms of their decision; or
- (b) if any such application is referred to the Secretary of State, inform the district planning authority, if any, of the date when it was so referred and, when notified to them, of the terms of the decision.

Representations by parish council before determination of application

25.—(1) Where the council of a parish are given information in relation to an application pursuant to paragraph 8(1) of Schedule 1 to the 1990 Act (local planning authorities: distribution of functions)(8), they must, as soon as practicable, notify the local planning authority who are determining the application whether they propose to make any representations about the manner in which the application should be determined, and must make any representations to that authority within 21 days of the notification to them of the application.

(2) A local planning authority must not determine any application in respect of which a parish are required to be given information before—

- (a) the council of the parish inform them that they do not propose to make any representations;
- (b) representations are made by that council; or
- (c) the period of 21 days mentioned in paragraph (1) has elapsed,

(7) Sections 191 and 192 were substituted by section 10(1) of the Planning and Compensation Act 1991 (c. 34).

(8) Paragraph 8(1) of Schedule 1 was substituted by paragraph 53 of Schedule 7 to the Planning and Compensation Act 1991 (c. 34). There are other amendments to paragraph 8 which are not relevant to this Order.

whichever occurs first; and in determining the application the authority must take into account any representations received from the council of the parish.

- (3) The appropriate authority must notify the council of the parish of—
 - (a) the terms of the decision on any such application; or
 - (b) where the application is referred to the Secretary of State—
 - (i) the date when it was so referred; and
 - (ii) when notified to the appropriate authority, the terms of the Secretary of State’s decision.
- (4) For the purposes of paragraph (3), the “appropriate authority” is—
 - (a) where the parish is situated in a National Park, the National Park authority;
 - (b) where the parish is situated in Greater London or a metropolitan county, and is not situated in a National Park, the local planning authority;
 - (c) where the parish is situated in a district which has no district council and is not situated in a National Park, the county planning authority;
 - (d) in any other case, the district planning authority.

Notification of mineral applications

26.—(1) Where notice has been given for the purposes of this article to a mineral planning authority as respects land which is in their area and it is specified in the notice—

- (a) by the Coal Authority that the land contains coal,
- (b) by the Secretary of State for Energy and Climate Change that the land contains gas or oil, or
- (c) by the Crown Estate Commissioners that the land contains silver or gold, the mineral planning authority must not determine any application for planning permission to win and work any mineral on that land without first notifying the body or person who gave the notice that an application has been made.

- (2) In paragraph (1)(a), “coal” means coal other than that—
 - (a) won or worked during the course of operations which are carried on exclusively for the purpose of exploring for coal; or
 - (b) which it is necessary to dig or carry away in the course of activities carried on for purposes which do not include the getting of coal or any product of coal.
