The Insolvency (England and Wales) Rules 2016

PART 4

RECEIVERSHIP

CHAPTER 2

Administrative receivers (other than in Scottish receiverships)

Limited disclosure

4.12.—(1) This rule applies where the administrative receiver thinks that disclosure of the whole or part of a statement of the company's affairs or a statement of concurrence would be likely to prejudice the conduct of the receivership or might reasonably be expected to lead to violence against any person.

(2) The administrative receiver may apply to the court for an order in respect of—

- (a) the statement of affairs; or
- (b) a statement of concurrence;

and the court may order that the whole or any specified part of the statement of affairs or a statement of concurrence must not be open to inspection except with permission of the court.

(3) The court's order may include directions regarding the delivery of documents to the registrar of companies and the disclosure of relevant information to other persons.
