The Town and Country Planning (Environmental Impact Assessment) Regulations 2017

PART 1

General

Citation, commencement and application

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Town and Country Planning (Environmental Impact Assessment) Regulations 2017 and come into force on 16th May 2017.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), these Regulations apply in relation to England only.

(3) Regulations 60, 61 and 62 apply in relation to Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland respectively⁽¹⁾.

Interpretation

2.—(1) In these Regulations—

“the 1991 Act” means the Planning and Compensation Act 1991⁽²⁾;

“the 1995 Act” means the Environment Act 1995⁽³⁾;

“the Act” means the Town and Country Planning Act 1990⁽⁴⁾;

“appropriate register” means the register on which particulars of an application for planning permission for the relevant development or an application for subsequent consent have been placed or would fall to be placed if such an application were made;

“the consultation bodies” means—

(a) any body which the relevant planning authority is required to consult, or would, if an application for planning permission for the development in question were before them, be required to consult by virtue of article 18 (consultations before the grant of permission) of the Order or of any direction under that article;

(b) the Marine Management Organisation⁽⁵⁾, in any case where the proposed development would affect, or would be likely to affect, any of the following areas—

(i) waters in or adjacent to England up to the seaward limits of the territorial sea;

(1) Regulations 60 to 62 relate to the Secretary of State’s power to direct that the Regulations shall not apply to development that constitutes or forms part of a project having national defence as its sole purpose. The decision as to whether a direction should be made in respect of projects situated in the devolved administrations will be taken by the Secretary of State.
