The Education Administration Rules 2018

PART 7

TIME, RULES ABOUT DOCUMENTS AND INTERPRETATION CHAPTER 7

Use of websites

Use of website by education administrator to deliver a particular document

- 7.39.—(1) This rule applies for the purposes of section 246B of the Act.
- (2) An education administrator who is required to deliver a document to any person may (except where personal delivery is required) satisfy that requirement by delivering a notice to that person which contains—
 - (a) a statement that the document is available for viewing and downloading on a website;
 - (b) the website's address and any password necessary to view and download the document; and
 - (c) a statement that the person to whom the notice is delivered may request a hard copy of the document with a telephone number, email address and postal address which may be used to make that request.
- (3) An education administrator who receives such a request must deliver a hard copy of the document to the recipient free of charge within five business days of receipt of the request.
 - (4) A document to which a notice under paragraph (2) relates must—
 - (a) remain available on the website for the period required by rule 7.41; and
 - (b) be in a format that enables it to be downloaded within a reasonable time of an electronic request being made for it to be downloaded.
- (5) A document which is delivered to a person by means of a website in accordance with this rule is deemed to have been delivered—
 - (a) when the document is first made available on the website; or
 - (b) when the notice under paragraph (2) is delivered to that person, if that is later.
