Power of FCA to suspend scrutiny of prospectus

17. After section 87J (requirements imposed as condition of approval) insert—

“87JA Power to suspend scrutiny of prospectus

(1) Where the FCA has received an application for approval of a prospectus, it may suspend its scrutiny of the prospectus on the ground that—

- (a) before receiving the application, it had imposed a prohibition or restriction under Article 42 of the markets in financial instruments regulation in relation to any financial activity or practice of the applicant;
- (b) in considering the application, it has decided to impose a prohibition or restriction under that Article in relation to the transferable securities to which the prospectus relates or any financial activity or practice of the applicant;
- (c) before receiving the application, it had found that a financial activity or practice of the applicant had contravened product intervention rules; or
- (d) in considering the application, it has decided that the approval of the prospectus would be likely to result in a contravention of product intervention rules.

(2) The FCA must resume its consideration of the application for approval of the prospectus—

- (a) where it suspended scrutiny of the prospectus on the ground specified in subsection (1)(a) or (b)—
 - (i) upon revoking the prohibition or restriction under Article 42(6) of the markets in financial instruments regulation; or
 - (ii) when it is satisfied that the prohibition or restriction does not have, or no longer has, any bearing on the approval of the prospectus;
- (b) where it suspended scrutiny of the prospectus on the ground specified in subsection (1)(c), when it is satisfied that the contravention of product intervention rules does not have, or no longer has, any bearing on the approval of the prospectus;
- (c) where it suspended scrutiny of the prospectus on the ground specified in subsection (1)(d), when it is satisfied that its approval of the prospectus would not result in a contravention of product intervention rules;
- (d) upon giving notice under section 87O(5) revoking its decision to suspend scrutiny of the prospectus;
- (e) where its decision to suspend scrutiny of the prospectus is quashed on a reference to the Tribunal or in other legal proceedings, on the date of the judgment of the Tribunal or of the court concerned.

(3) “Product intervention rules” has the same meaning as in section 137D.

87JB Power to refuse approval of a prospectus

(1) Where the FCA is satisfied that a person has repeatedly and seriously infringed provision within subsection (2) (whether or not each infringement is of the same provision), the FCA may decide that, for a period not exceeding 5 years, the FCA will not accept from the person any application for approval of a prospectus.

(2) The provisions referred to in subsection (1) are—

- (a) any provision of this Part so far as relating to prospectuses;

- (b) any provision of prospectus rules;
 - (c) any provision of the prospectus regulation;
 - (d) any provision made in accordance with the prospectus regulation.
- (3) If the FCA proposes that for a period it will not accept any application from a person for approval of a prospectus, the FCA must give the person a warning notice specifying the length of the proposed period.
- (4) If the FCA decides for a period that it will not accept any application from a person for approval of a prospectus—
- (a) the FCA must give the person a decision notice;
 - (b) the period starts with the date of the notice;
 - (c) the person may refer that matter to the Tribunal; and
 - (d) the notice must—
 - (i) be dated;
 - (ii) specify the length of the period;
 - (iii) state that the period begins with the date of the notice; and
 - (iv) state that the person may refer the matter to the Tribunal.
- (5) If the FCA decides not to accept any application from a person for the approval of a prospectus for a specified period, the person may refer the matter to the Tribunal.”.

- (2) In the heading, after “suspend” insert “, restrict”.
- (3) In subsection (5) for paragraph (c) substitute—
- “(c) any provision of, or made in accordance with, the prospectus regulation.”.
- (4) After subsection (5) insert—
- “(6) The FCA may require the offeror to suspend or restrict the offer on the ground that—
- (a) before the offer was made, the FCA had imposed a prohibition or restriction under Article 42 of the markets in financial instruments regulation in relation to any financial activity or practice of the offeror;
 - (b) the FCA has decided to impose a prohibition or restriction under that Article in relation to the transferable securities to which the offer relates or any financial activity or practice of the offeror;
 - (c) before the offer was made, the FCA had found that a financial activity or practice of the offeror had contravened product intervention rules; or
 - (d) the FCA has decided that the offer, if not suspended or restricted, would be likely to result in a contravention of product intervention rules.
- (7) A requirement imposed under subsection (6) ceases to have effect—
- (a) where it was imposed on the ground specified in subsection (6)(a) or (b)—

- (i) upon revocation of the prohibition or restriction under Article 42(6) of the markets in financial instruments regulation; or
 - (ii) when the FCA notifies the offeror that it is satisfied that the prohibition or restriction does not have, or no longer has, any bearing on the transferable securities to which the offer relates;
 - (b) where it was imposed on the ground specified in subsection (6)(c), when the FCA notifies the offeror that it is satisfied that the contravention of product intervention rules does not have, or no longer has, any bearing on the transferable securities to which the offer relates;
 - (c) where it was imposed on the ground specified in subsection (6)(d), when the FCA notifies the offeror that it is satisfied that the offer, if no longer suspended or restricted, would not result in a contravention of product intervention rules;
 - (d) upon the FCA giving notice under section 87O(5) revoking its decision to impose the requirement;
 - (e) where the FCA's decision to impose the requirement is quashed on a reference to the Tribunal or in other legal proceedings, on the date of the judgment of the Tribunal or of the court concerned.
- (8) “Product intervention rules” has the same meaning as in section 137D.”

- (2) In the heading after “suspend” insert “, restrict ”; and
- (3) In subsection (5) for paragraph (c) substitute—
 - “(c) any provision of, or made in accordance with, the prospectus regulation.”.
- (4) After subsection (5) insert—
 - “(6) Subsections (7) and (8) apply where—
 - (a) before the request was made for the admission of the securities to trading on the regulated market in question (“the request”), the FCA had imposed a prohibition or restriction under Article 42 of the markets in financial instruments regulation in relation to any financial activity or practice of the person who made the request;
 - (b) the FCA has decided to impose a prohibition or restriction under that Article in relation to the securities or any financial activity or practice of the person who made the request;
 - (c) before the request was made, the FCA had found that a financial activity or practice of the person who made the request had contravened product intervention rules; or
 - (d) the FCA has decided that the admission of the securities to trading on the regulated market in question, if not suspended or restricted, would be likely to result in a contravention of product intervention rules.

- (7) Where the securities have not yet been admitted to trading on the regulated market in question, the FCA may—
- (a) require the person who made the request to suspend or restrict the request;
 - (b) require a person not to advertise the securities, or to take such steps as the FCA may specify to suspend any existing advertising in connection with the securities.
- (8) Where the securities have been admitted to trading on the regulated market in question, the FCA may—
- (a) require the market operator to suspend or restrict trading in the securities;
 - (b) require a person not to advertise the securities, or to take such steps as the FCA may specify to suspend any existing advertising in connection with the securities.
- (9) A requirement imposed under subsection (7) or (8) ceases to have effect—
- (a) where it was imposed on the ground mentioned in subsection (6)(a) or (b)—
 - (i) upon revocation of the prohibition or restriction under Article 42(6) of the markets in financial instruments regulation; or
 - (ii) when the FCA notifies the person who made the request that it is satisfied that the prohibition or restriction does not have, or no longer has, any bearing on the securities;
 - (b) where it was imposed on the ground mentioned in subsection (6)(c), when the FCA notifies the person who made the request that it is satisfied that the contravention of product intervention rules does not have, or no longer has, any bearing on the securities;
 - (c) where it was imposed on the ground mentioned in subsection (6)(d), when the FCA notifies the person who made the request that it is satisfied that the admission of the securities to trading on the regulated market in question, if no longer suspended or restricted, would not result in a contravention of product intervention rules;
 - (d) upon the FCA giving notice under section 87O(5) revoking its decision to impose the requirement;
 - (e) where the FCA's decision to impose the requirement is quashed on a reference to the Tribunal or in other legal proceedings, on the date of the judgment of the Tribunal or of the court concerned.
- (10) “Product intervention rules” has the same meaning as in section 137D.
- (11) Where the FCA considers that the financial or other situation of a person at whose request transferable securities have been admitted to trading on a regulated market is such that trading would be detrimental to the interests of investors, it may require the market operator to suspend trading in the securities.”.

(a) in subsection (4A) ^{M18}, for “and 391D” substitute “ 391D, 391E and 391F ”^{M19} ;

(b) after subsection (8F) ^{M20} insert—

“(8G) Where a decision notice or final notice relates to any decision or action under a provision of this Act in relation to the contravention of a requirement imposed by the prospectus regulation or any directly applicable EU regulation made under the prospectus regulation, this section has effect subject to Article 42 of the prospectus regulation (publication of decisions).”.

(2) After section 391E insert—

“391F Publication: special provisions relating to the prospectus regulation

(1) Subsection (2) applies where a decision notice or final notice relates to the imposition of a sanction or measure to which Article 42 of the prospectus regulation applies, and —

(a) following an assessment by the FCA of the proportionality of publishing personal data of a person on whom the sanction or measure is imposed, the FCA considers it disproportionate to do so, or

(b) publication of personal data of a person on whom the sanction or measure is imposed would jeopardise the stability of financial markets or an ongoing investigation.

(2) The FCA—

- (a) if publication on an anonymous basis of information about the matter to which the notice relates would ensure the effective protection of the personal data, must publish the information on an anonymous basis;
- (b) otherwise, must defer publication of the information until the conditions in subsection (1) cease to be met,

but this is subject to subsection (4).

(3) The FCA may make such arrangements as to the publication of information under subsection (2)(a) (including as to the timing of publication) as the FCA considers necessary to ensure effective protection of the personal data.

(4) The FCA must not publish the notice, or information about the matter to which the notice relates, if actions under subsection (2) are considered by the FCA to be insufficient to ensure —

- (a) that the stability of the financial markets would not be put in jeopardy; or
- (b) that, in cases involving sanctions or measures considered by the FCA to be of a minor nature, information is published only where it is proportionate to do so.

(5) In this section, “personal data”, in relation to a person who is not an individual, means the person's identity.”
