- c) the deadline for submitting the application referred to in sub-paragraph (b) shall be extended automatically by one year where:
 - i. Switzerland or the United Kingdom has notified the United Kingdom or Switzerland, respectively, that technical problems prevent the host State either from registering the application or from issuing the certificate of application referred to in subparagraph (b); or

- ii. the Joint Committee decides that there are reasonable grounds for so extending it.

The host State shall provide appropriate public information for the nationals concerned in good time;

- d) where the deadline for submitting the application referred to in sub-paragraph (b) is not respected by the persons concerned, the competent authorities shall assess all the circumstances and reasons for not respecting the deadline and allow those persons to submit an application within a reasonable further period of time, where there are reasonable grounds for the failure to respect the deadline;

- h) persons who, before the specified date, are holders of a valid immigration document recognising or conferring a permanent right to reside in the United Kingdom, shall have the right to exchange that document within the period referred to in sub-paragraph (b) for a new residence document upon application after a verification of their identity, a criminality and security check in accordance with sub-paragraph (o) of this paragraph and confirmation of ongoing residence; such a document shall be free of charge;
- i) the identity of the applicants shall be verified through the presentation of a valid passport or national identity card for Swiss nationals and United Kingdom nationals, and a valid passport for their respective family members who are not Swiss nationals or United Kingdom nationals; the acceptance of such identity documents shall not be made conditional upon any criteria other than that of validity. Where the identity document is retained by the competent authorities of the host State while the application is pending, the host State shall return that document upon application without delay and before the decision on the application is taken;
- j) supporting documents other than identity documents, such as civil status documents, may be submitted in copy. Originals of supporting documents can be required only in specific cases where there is a reasonable doubt as to the authenticity of the supporting documents submitted;

- k) the host State may only require Swiss nationals and United Kingdom nationals to produce, in addition to the identity documents referred to in sub-paragraph (i) of this paragraph, the following supporting evidence:
 - i. where they reside in the host State as employed persons, the document by virtue of which they entered the host State and a contractual statement from the employer or a written confirmation of engagement;
 - ii. where they reside in the host State as self-employed persons, the document by virtue of which they entered the host State and proof that they are self-employed or wish to become so;

 - iv. where they reside in the host State as students, evidence that they are registered in an approved establishment for the purpose of following, as their principal activity, a vocational training course, have sufficient financial means for themselves and their spouse and dependent children not to have to apply for social assistance benefits during their stay, and have comprehensive sickness insurance cover in the host State.
- l) the host State may only require family members to produce, in addition to the identity documents referred to in point (i) of this paragraph, the document by virtue of which they entered the territory, a document issued by the competent authority of the state of origin or provenance proving their relationship, and, for dependants, a document issued by the competent authority of the state of origin or provenance certifying that they are dependents of the Swiss national or UK national or that they live in their household in that state;
- m) if the host State has reasonable doubts as to whether the conditions relating to the right of residence under this Title have been fulfilled, the host State may require additional evidence. The host State shall not require applicants to present evidence that goes beyond what is strictly necessary and proportionate to demonstrate that the conditions relating to the right of residence under this Title have been fulfilled;
- n) the competent authorities of the host State shall help the applicants prove their eligibility and avoid any errors or omissions in the application; they shall give the applicants the opportunity to furnish supplementary evidence and to correct any deficiencies, errors or omission;

- o) criminality and security checks may be carried out systematically on applicants with the exclusive aim of verifying whether restrictions set out in Article 17 of this Agreement may be applicable. For that purpose, applicants may be required to declare past criminal convictions which appear in their criminal record in accordance with the law of the state of conviction at the time of the application;
- p) the new residence document shall include a statement that it has been issued in accordance with this Agreement.

2. During the period referred to in sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph 1 of this Article and its possible one-year extension under sub-paragraph (c) of paragraph 1 of this Article, all rights provided for in this Part shall be deemed to apply to Swiss nationals, United Kingdom nationals and their respective family members, residing in the host State in accordance with the conditions and subject to the restrictions set out in Article 17 of this Agreement.

4. Where a host State has chosen not to require Swiss nationals, United Kingdom nationals and their family members, residing in its territory in accordance with the conditions set out in this Title, to apply for the new residence status referred to in paragraph 1 as a condition for legal residence, those eligible for residence rights under this Title shall have the right to receive, in accordance with the conditions set out in the FMOPA and paragraph 5 of this Article, a residence document.

5. Criminality and security checks may be carried out systematically on applicants for the residence document mentioned in paragraph 4 of this Article with the exclusive aim of verifying whether restrictions set out in Article 17 of this Agreement may be applicable. "UNITED KINGDOM

1. Where, in accordance with United Kingdom legislation, a person may be entitled to a retirement pension if:

- (a) the contributions of a former spouse are taken into account as if they were that person's own contributions; or
- (b) the relevant contribution conditions are satisfied by that person's spouse or former spouse, then provided, in each case, that the spouse or former spouse is or had been exercising an activity as an employed or self-employed person, and had been subject to the legislation of two or more Member States, the provisions of Chapter 5 of Title III of this Regulation shall apply in order to determine entitlement under United Kingdom legislation. In this case, references in the said Chapter 5 to 'periods of insurance' shall be construed as references to periods of insurance completed by:
 - i. a spouse or former spouse where a claim is made by:
 - a married woman, or
 - a person whose marriage has terminated otherwise than by the death of the spouse; or
 - ii. a former spouse, where a claim is made by:
 - a widower who immediately before pensionable age is not entitled to widowed parent's allowance, or
 - a widow who immediately before pensionable age is not entitled to widowed mother's allowance, widowed parent's allowance or widow's pension, or who is only entitled to an age-related widow's pension calculated pursuant to Article 52(1)(b) of this Regulation, and for this purpose 'age-related widow's pension' means a widow's pension payable at a reduced rate in accordance with section 39(4) of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992.

2. For the purposes of applying Article 6 of this Regulation to the provisions governing entitlement to attendance allowance, carer's allowance and disability living allowance, a period of employment, self-employment or residence completed in the territory of a Member State other than the United Kingdom shall be taken into account in so far as is necessary to satisfy conditions as to required periods of presence in the United Kingdom, prior to the day on which entitlement to the benefit in question first arises.

3. For the purposes of Article 7 of this Regulation, in the case of invalidity, old-age or survivors' cash benefits, pensions for accidents at work or occupational diseases and death grants, any beneficiary under United Kingdom legislation who is staying in the territory of another Member State shall, during that stay, be considered as if he resided in the territory of that other Member State.

4. Where Article 46 of this Regulation applies, if the person concerned suffers incapacity for work leading to invalidity while subject to the legislation of another Member State, the United Kingdom shall, for the purposes of Section 30A (5) of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992, take account of any periods during which the person concerned has received, in respect of that incapacity for work:

- i. cash sickness benefits or wages or salary in lieu thereof; or
- ii. benefits within the meaning of Chapters 4 and 5 of Title III of this Regulation granted in respect of the invalidity which followed that incapacity for work, under the legislation of the other Member State, as though they were periods of short term incapacity benefit paid in accordance with Sections 30A (1)-(4) of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992.

In applying this provision, account shall only be taken of periods during which the person would have been incapable of work within the meaning of United Kingdom legislation.

5. (2) For the purposes of Article 52(1)(b)(ii) of this Regulation, where:

- (a) in any income tax year starting on or after 6 April 1975, a person carrying out activity as an employed person has completed periods of insurance, employment or residence exclusively in a Member State other than the United Kingdom, and the application of point 5(1) above results in that year being counted as a qualifying year within the meaning of United Kingdom legislation for the purposes of Article 52(1)(b)(i) of this

Regulation, he shall be deemed to have been insured for 52 weeks in that year in that other Member State;

- (b) any income tax year starting on or after 6 April 1975 does not count as a qualifying year within the meaning of United Kingdom legislation for the purposes of Article 52(1)(b)(i) of this Regulation, any periods of insurance, employment or residence completed in that year shall be disregarded.

(3) For the purpose of converting an earnings factor into periods of insurance, the earnings factor achieved in the relevant income tax year within the meaning of United Kingdom legislation shall be divided by that year's lower earnings limit. The result shall be expressed as a whole number, any remaining fraction being ignored. The figure so calculated shall be treated as representing the number of weeks of insurance completed under United Kingdom legislation during that year, provided that such figure shall not exceed the number of weeks during which in that year the person was subject to that legislation."

Article 2 of the Federal Old-Age and Survivors' Insurance Act and Article 1 of the Federal Invalidity Insurance Act, which govern voluntary insurance in these insurance branches for Swiss nationals resident in States not subject to this Agreement, shall be applicable to persons resident outside Switzerland who are nationals of the other States to which this Agreement applies, and to refugees and stateless persons resident in the territory of these States, where these persons join the voluntary insurance scheme not later than one year after the date on which they ceased to be covered by old-age, survivors' and invalidity insurance after a continuous period of insurance of at least five years.

2. Where a person ceases to be insured under Swiss old-age, survivors' and invalidity insurance after a continuous period of insurance of at least five years, he shall continue to be entitled to be insured with the agreement of the employer if he works in a State to which this Agreement does not apply for an employer in Switzerland and if he submits an application to this effect within six months of the date on which he ceases to be insured.

- iii. persons receiving Swiss unemployment insurance benefits;
- iv. family members of persons referred to in (i) and (iii) or of an employed or self-employed person resident in Switzerland who is insured under the Swiss sickness insurance scheme, unless these family members are resident in one of the following States: Denmark, Spain, Hungary, Portugal, Sweden or the United Kingdom;
- v. family members of persons referred to in (ii) or of a pensioner resident in Switzerland who is insured under the Swiss sickness insurance scheme, unless these family members are resident in one of the following States: Denmark, Portugal, Sweden or the United Kingdom.

As family members are considered those persons who are defined as family members according to the legislation of the state of residence.

- (b) Persons referred to in (a) may, on request, be exempted from compulsory insurance if and as long as they are resident in one of the following States and can prove that they are eligible for cover in the event of sickness: Germany, France, Italy, Austria, and, with regard to persons referred to in (a) (iv) and (v), Finland and, with regard to persons referred to in (a)(ii), Portugal.

This request

- (aa) must be submitted within three months of the date on which the obligation to take out insurance in Switzerland comes into effect; where, in justified cases, the request is submitted after this deadline, the exemption shall take effect as from the commencement of the insurance obligation;
- (bb) shall apply to all family members residing in the same State.

4. Where a person subject to Swiss legal provisions under Title II of the Regulation is, in application of 3(b), subject for the purposes of sickness insurance to the legal provisions of another State covered by this Agreement, the costs of these benefits in kind for non-occupational accidents shall be shared equally between the Swiss insurer against occupational and non-occupational accidents and industrial diseases and the competent sickness insurance institution if an entitlement exists to benefits in kind from both bodies. The Swiss insurer against occupational and non-occupational accidents and industrial diseases shall meet all costs in the event of occupational accidents, accidents on the way to work or industrial diseases, even where there is an entitlement to benefits from a sickness insurance body in the country of residence.

5. Persons who are working, but not residing in Switzerland and who have statutory insurance cover in their State of residence in accordance with point 3(b), as well as their family members, shall benefit from the provisions of Article 19 of the Regulation during a stay in Switzerland.

6. For the purposes of applying Articles 18, 19, 20, 27 of the Regulation in Switzerland, the competent insurer shall bear all invoiced costs.

7. Periods of daily allowance insurance completed under the insurance scheme of another State to which this Agreement applies shall be taken into account for reducing or lifting a possible reserve in daily allowance insurance in the event of maternity or sickness where the person becomes insured with a Swiss insurer within three months of ceasing to be covered by insurance in another country.

8. Where a person who was gainfully employed or self-employed in Switzerland and covering his vital needs has had to cease his activity owing to an accident or illness and is no longer subject to Swiss legislation on invalidity insurance, he shall be considered to be covered by that insurance for the purpose of eligibility for rehabilitation measures until the payment of an invalidity pension and throughout the period during which he benefits from these measures, provided that he has not taken up a new activity outside Switzerland.”

The provisions of Regulation (EC) No 987/2009 shall, for the purposes of this Agreement, be adapted as follows:

(a) the following shall be added to Annex 3:

"UNITED KINGDOM".

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order makes provision for the modification of certain social security legislation, so as to give effect to the Agreement between the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the Swiss Confederation (“Switzerland”) on Citizens’ Rights following the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union and the Free Movement of Persons Agreement, signed at Bern on 25th February 2019 (“the Switzerland Citizens’ Rights Agreement”). Part 3 of the Switzerland Citizens’ Rights Agreement makes provision in relation to social security coordination.

The rules of the European Union relating to social security coordination apply between the United Kingdom and Switzerland as provided for by the Agreement between the European Community and its Member States, on the one part, and the Swiss Confederation, of the other, on the free movement of persons, signed at Luxembourg on 21st June 1999 (“FMOPA”). When the United Kingdom leaves the European Union, FMOPA will also cease to apply.

The relevant European Union regulations are Regulation (EC) No 883/2004 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 29th April 2004 on the coordination of social security systems and Regulation (EC) No 987/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 16th September 2009 laying down the procedure for implementing Regulation (EC) No 883/2004 (“the EU social security coordination regulations”). The EU social security coordination regulations form part of domestic law by virtue of section 3 of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (c. 16) from exit day.

Article 36(2) of the Switzerland Citizens’ Rights Agreement provides that it comes into force on the later of the specified date, or the first day of the second month following the date of receipt of the later of the parties’ notifications that they have completed their internal procedures. Article 36(3) also permits provisional application from the specified date.

The specified date for the purposes of the Switzerland Citizens’ Rights Agreement is the date on which, in the absence of any transitional arrangements, the United Kingdom ceases to be a Member State of the European Union, or in the case where there are transitional arrangements, the date on which these cease to apply. A transitional arrangement means an arrangement during which time FMOPA continues to apply to the United Kingdom.

The Order does not impose any costs on business, charities or the voluntary sector. A Tax Information and Impact Note has not been prepared for this instrument as it gives effect to previously announced policy.
