

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM TO
THE PROSCRIBED ORGANISATIONS (NAME CHANGE) ORDER 2020
2020 No. 169

1. Introduction

- 1.1 This explanatory memorandum has been prepared by the Home Office and is laid before Parliament by Command of Her Majesty.
- 1.2 This memorandum contains information for the Joint Committee on Statutory Instruments.

2. Purpose of the instrument

- 2.1 This instrument is made under the power in section 3(6)(a) of the Terrorism Act 2000 (“TACT”) which permits the Secretary of State to specify names to be treated as other names for an organisation that is already a proscribed organisation listed in Schedule 2 to TACT. The proscribed organisation in question is National Action. The alternative name for National Action specified by this instrument is “System Resistance Network”.

3. Matters of special interest to Parliament

Matters of special interest to the Joint Committee on Statutory Instruments

- 3.1 This Order comes into force on the day after it is laid before Parliament and accordingly breaches the 21 day convention. Any significant delay between the laying and coming into force of the instrument would alert the organisation to the impending change to the law that would result in it being recognised as “System Resistance Network”, and may result in pre-emptive action by the organisation’s members designed to circumvent the provisions of TACT and/or the criminal law. Breaching the 21 day convention will also assist in any prosecutions that may be brought since the Order will remove the need for the prosecuting authorities, in addition to making out the offence in question, to have to prove beyond reasonable doubt that “System Resistance Network” is one and the same as National Action.

Matters relevant to Standing Orders Nos. 83P and 83T of the Standing Orders of the House of Commons relating to Public Business (English Votes for English Laws)

- 3.2 As the instrument is subject to negative resolution procedure there are no matters relevant to Standing Orders Nos. 83P and 83T of the Standing Orders of the House of Commons relating to Public Business at this stage.

4. Extent and Territorial Application

- 4.1 The territorial extent of this instrument is the whole of the United Kingdom.
- 4.2 The territorial application of this instrument is the whole of the United Kingdom.

5. European Convention on Human Rights

- 5.1 As the instrument is subject to negative resolution procedure and does not amend primary legislation, no statement is required.

6. Legislative Context

- 6.1 Section 3(3) of TACT allows the Secretary of State, by Order, to add an organisation to the list of proscribed organisations in Schedule 2 to TACT, to remove an organisation from that list or to amend Schedule 2 in some other way.
- 6.2 An organisation is proscribed in the UK as soon as an Order adding it to Schedule 2 comes into force. It is a criminal offence for a person to belong to, or invite support for, a proscribed organisation. It is also a criminal offence to arrange a meeting to support a proscribed organisation; or to wear clothing or carry articles in public which arouse reasonable suspicion that an individual is a member or supporter of a proscribed organisation.
- 6.3 Section 3(6) of TACT permits the Secretary of State, by Order, to provide that a name that is not specified in Schedule 2 is to be treated as an alternative name for an organisation that is already proscribed.
- 6.4 For an Order under section 3(6) of TACT to be made specifying a new or additional name under which a proscribed organisation is operating, there must be credible evidence to suggest that:
- the ideology, aims and methods of each of the groups are essentially the same in all material respects;
  - the leaders or key individuals involved in each group are either the same people or are materially the same group of people; and
  - those who are members of each group are also members of the other group (or at the least, that generally speaking is the position).
- 6.5 This is the thirteenth Order made under this power and the second made in respect of this proscribed organisation.

7. Policy background

What is being done and why?
