MISCELLANEOUS AND GENERAL

Trees subject to tree preservation orders

37.—(1) The undertaker may fell or lop any tree that is subject to a tree preservation order within or overhanging land within the Order limits or cut back its roots, if it reasonably believes it to be necessary to do so in order to prevent the tree from obstructing or interfering with the construction, maintenance, operation or decommissioning of the authorised development or any apparatus used in connection with the authorised development.

(3) The authority given by paragraph (1) constitutes a deemed consent under the relevant tree preservation order.
