The Registrar (Annotation, Removal and Disclosure Restrictions) Regulations 2024

Part 3

Removal of material from the register

Removal of material on application

- 6.—(1) An application for removal of material from the register can be made by any person.
- (2) An application for removal must—
- (a) be in writing;
 - (b) contain the required information about the applicant (see paragraph (4));
 - (c) specify the material which the applicant wants the registrar to remove from the register (“the specified material”) and where in the register the specified material is;
 - (d) specify which, if any, of the specified material is, in the applicant’s view, within each of the following provisions of the 2006 Act—
 - (i) section 1094(1)(a);
 - (ii) section 1094(1)(b);
 - (e) explain the basis for that view, and
 - (f) where section 1094(3) of the 2006 Act is relevant, include representations about the applicant’s interest in removing that of the specified material to which that subsection is relevant.
- (3) An application for removal must be accompanied by any information in writing which the applicant wishes to rely on.
- (4) The “required information about the applicant” means—
- (a) name;
 - (b) address;
 - (c) email address, and
 - (d) a description of any current or past connection the applicant has or had with the company.
