Section 4(3) of the Act provides that, amongst other things, a person may not be placed under an obligation to disclose a spent conviction or be prejudiced in relation to any office by reason of spent convictions. See section 1(1) of the Act (Rehabilitated persons and spent convictions) for the meaning of “spent conviction”.

(3) Section 103(2) of the Act provides that an individual of a prescribed description is to be a “relevant individual” for the purposes of section 103(1) (“prescribed” means “prescribed by regulations”: see s.121(1) of the Act; regulations under section 103 are to be made by the Secretary of State: see section 80(8) and 2(a), 116 of, and paragraph 25(1) of Schedule 4 to, the Act amend sub-section 3A of section 113. Termination of tenure of office

7.—(1) Subject to regulation 4(2) a member may resign his or her office at any time by giving notice in writing to the National Assembly.

(4) Where a person has been appointed to be a member, and—

- (a) he or she becomes disqualified for appointment under regulation 5; or the National Assembly shall forthwith terminate his or her tenure of office by giving him or her notice in writing to that effect.

(b) Any notice under sub-paragraph (a) above shall state the reason or reasons why it is given.

(6) If the Assembly is of the opinion that a member:

(a) has failed to comply with any requirement imposed by or under regulation 10 (disability of members in proceedings on account of their interests) in relation to an interest of that member;

(b) has failed, in a material respect, to comply with any requirement imposed by the Assembly under regulation 3(4); or

(c) who was a lay person when appointed is no longer a lay person;

it may forthwith terminate that person's tenure of office by giving him or her notice in writing to that effect, except that no person's tenure of office shall be terminated under sub-paragraph (a) unless at the time of the failure in question there had been issued guidance of the Assembly to the Council about relevant interests under regulation 10.

Appointment of committees and sub-committees

8.—(1) Subject to such directions as may be given by the National Assembly, the Council may, and if so directed by the Assembly must, appoint committees of the Council.

(2) Subject to such directions as may be given by the National Assembly, a committee of the Council may consist wholly or partly of members of the Council or wholly of persons who are not members of the Council.

(5) Regulation 5 (disqualification from appointment), other than paragraph 1(h), and regulation 6 (cessation from disqualification) apply to the appointment of members of committees and sub-committees (“committee members”) as they apply to the appointment of members of the Council.

(a) (6) (a) Subject to the exceptions from application described in sub-paragraph (b) and the modifications described in sub-paragraph (c), regulation 7 (termination of tenure of office) shall apply to committee members as it applies to members of the Council.

(b) The exceptions are—

(i) in the case of all committee members paragraph (2) of regulation 7; and

(ii) in the case of committee members who are members of the Council paragraphs (1), (4), (5) and paragraphs (b) and (c) of paragraph (6) of regulation 7.

(c) The modifications are—

(i) in the case of a committee member who is not a member of the Council in paragraphs (1) and (3)—(6) in each place where “the National Assembly” occurs it shall be omitted and replaced by “the Council”; and

(ii) in paragraph (3) “meetings of the Council” shall in both places be omitted and replaced by “meetings of a committee of which he or she is a member”.

(d) The termination by the National Assembly of a member of the Council’s membership of a committee or sub-committee under this regulation shall also operate as a termination of that member’s tenure of office as a member of the Council.

Meetings and proceedings

9.—(1) The meetings and proceedings of the Council shall be conducted in accordance with the rules set out in the Schedule to these Regulations and with Standing Orders made under paragraph (2).

(2) Subject to those rules, to regulation 10 (disability of members in proceedings on account of their interests) and to such directions as may be given by the National Assembly, the Council shall make, and may vary or revoke, Standing Orders for the regulation of its proceedings and business (including provision for the suspension of all or any of the Standing Orders).

(3) Subject to regulations 8 (appointment of committees and sub-committees) and 10 and to such directions as may be given by the National Assembly, the Council may make, vary and revoke Standing Orders for the regulation of the quorum, proceedings and business of any committee or sub-committee (“committees”) (including provision for the suspension of all or any of the Standing Orders) but, subject to any such Standing Orders, the quorum, proceedings and business of the committees shall be such as each of the committees shall determine.

(4) The proceedings of the Council or any committee or sub-committee of it shall not be invalidated by any vacancy in membership or by any defect in the appointment of either a member of the Council or a member of a committee or sub-committee.

Disability of members in proceedings on account of their interests

(a) 10. (1) (a) Subject to the following provisions of this regulation, if a member has a relevant interest in any matter and is present at any meeting of the Council at which the matter is the subject of consideration or discussion, he or she shall at the meeting and as soon as practicable after its commencement, disclose his or her interest and shall not take part in the consideration of the matter or vote on any question with respect to it.

(b) In this regulation “relevant interest in any matter” means an interest in a matter that would lead a fair-minded observer to conclude that there was a real possibility that the member would be biased in his or her discussion or consideration of the matter.

(a) (2) (a) The National Assembly may, to such extent as it sees fit and subject to such conditions as it sees fit, remove any disability imposed by or under this regulation in any case in which it appears to it in the interests of the Council that the disability should be removed.

(b) A removal must be done in writing and may relate to general or particular circumstances.

(3) This regulation applies to a committee or sub-committee of the Council as it applies to the Council itself and applies to a member of any such committee or sub-committee (whether or not he or she is also a member of the Council) as it applies to a member of the Council.

(4) Subject to such directions as may be given by the National Assembly, the Standing Orders that the Council may make under regulation 9(2) and (3) (meetings and proceedings) may provide for the exclusion of a member from a meeting of the Council or a committee or sub-committee of the Council while any matter in which he or she has a relevant interest is under consideration.

(5) Any remuneration, compensation or allowances payable, by virtue of paragraph 7 of Schedule 1 to the Act (remuneration and allowances), to a member, or to a member of a committee or sub-committee who is not a member of the Council, shall not be treated as a relevant interest for the purposes of this regulation.
