Local Government Investigations (Functions of Monitoring Officers and Standards Committees)(Wales) Regulations 2001

Reports

6. After concluding an investigation, the monitoring officer must:
  - (a) produce a report on the findings of his or her investigation and, if appropriate, may make recommendations to the Standards Committee of the relevant authority concerned,
  - (b) send a copy of the report to any person who is the subject of the investigation, and
  - (c) take reasonable steps to send a copy of the report to any person who made any allegation which gave rise to the investigation.
