Prescribed descriptions of persons — community care services and services for carers

3.—(1) For the purposes of section 57(1) of the 2001 Act, a person falling within section 57(2) of that Act(7) is of a prescribed description if—

- (a) he or she is a person who appears to the responsible authority to be capable of managing a direct payment by himself or herself, or with such assistance as may be available to him or her; and
  - (b) he or she falls within a description in paragraph (2); unless
  - (c) he or she is a person to whom Schedule 1 applies.
- (2) The descriptions are —
- (a) a person to whom section 29 of the National Assistance Act 1948(8) applies;
  - (b) a person (not being a person falling within sub-paragraph (a)) referred to in section 57(2) (a) of the 2001 Act (persons in respect of whom a local authority have decided his or her needs call for the provision of a particular community care service) who is aged over 65;
  - (c) a person in respect of whom the responsible authority has decided under section 2(1) of the Carers and Disabled Children Act 2000 (services for carers) to provide him or her with a particular service under that Act.

Prescribed descriptions of persons — children’s services

4. For the purposes of section 17A(1) of the 1989 Act, a person falling within section 17A(2) of that Act(9) is of a prescribed description if —

- (a) he or she is a person who appears to the responsible authority to be capable of managing a direct payment by himself or herself or with such assistance as may be available to him or her; unless
- (b) he or she is a person to whom Schedule 1 applies.

Duty to make direct payments

5.—(1) If the conditions in paragraph (3) are satisfied, a responsible authority must make in respect of —

- (a) a prescribed person under regulation 3 who falls within paragraph (2)(a) or (c) of that regulation;
- (b) at 1 March 2005 and thereafter, a prescribed person under regulation 3 who falls within paragraph (2)(b) of that regulation; and

(7) A person falls within section 57(2) of the 2001 Act if the responsible authority has decided: (i) that his or her needs call for the provision by them of a particular community care service; or (ii) to provide him or her with a particular service by virtue of section 2(1) of the Carers and Disabled Children Act 2000.

(8) 1948 c. 47. Section 29 applies to “persons aged eighteen or over who are blind, deaf or dumb or who suffer from mental disorder of any description, and other persons aged eighteen or over who are substantially and permanently handicapped by illness, injury, or congenital deformity or such other disabilities as may be prescribed...”.

(9) A person falls within section 17A(2) of the 1989 Act if he or she is: (a) a person with parental responsibility for a disabled child; (b) a disabled person with parental responsibility for a child; or (c) a disabled child aged 16 or 17;

(c) a prescribed person under regulation 4;
such payments (“direct payments”) as are determined in accordance with regulation 6 in respect of his or her securing the provision of a relevant service.

(2) In these Regulations a relevant service means —

- (a) a community care service within the meaning of section 46 of the National Health Service and Community Care Act 1990(10); or
- (b) a service under section 2 of the Carers and Disabled Children Act 2000(11); or
- (c) a service which may be provided in the exercise of functions under section 17 of the 1989 Act (provision of services for children in need, their families and others).

(3) The conditions are that —

- (a) the responsible authority are satisfied that the person’s needs for the relevant service can be met by securing the provision of it by means of a direct payment; and
- (b) in the case of a relevant service mentioned in paragraph (2)(c), the responsible authority are satisfied that the welfare of the child in respect of whom the service is needed will be safeguarded or promoted by securing the provision of it by means of a direct payment.

Amount and payment of direct payments

6.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (3) and (4), a direct payment shall be made as a gross payment(12) unless the responsible authority decide it shall be made as a net payment(13).

(2) For the purpose of making the payment referred to in paragraph (1), the responsible authority shall determine, having regard to the prescribed person’s means, what amount or amounts (if any) it is reasonably practicable for him or her to pay towards securing the provision of the relevant service (whether by way of reimbursement as mentioned in section 57(4) of the 2001 Act or by way of a contribution as mentioned in section 57(5) of that Act)(14).

(3) Where the relevant service is one which, apart from these Regulations, would be provided under section 117 of the 1983 Act (after-care) —

- (a) the payment shall be made at the rate mentioned in subsection (4)(a) of section 57 of the 2001 Act; and
- (b) subsection (4)(b) of that section shall not apply.

(4) Where a direct payment is made to a person falling within section 17A(5) of the 1989 Act(15) —

- (a) the payment shall be made at the rate mentioned in subsection (4)(a) of section 57 of the 2001 Act(16); and
- (b) subsection (4)(b) of that section(17) shall not apply.

(5) A direct payment may be paid to —

(10) 1990 c. 19.

(11) 2000 c. 16.

(12) See section 57(4) of the 2001 Act for the definition of “gross payments”.

(13) See section 57(5) of the 2001 Act for the definition of “net payments”.

(14) Section 17A(3) of the 1989 Act applies sections 57(3) to (5) and (7) of the 2001 Act to regulations made under section 17A of the 1989 Act.

(15) A person falls within section 17A(5) if he or she has parental responsibility for a disabled child aged 16 or 17 or is a disabled person with parental responsibility for a child of that age or is in receipt of income support, working families tax credit or disabled person’s tax credit.

(16) The rate mentioned in section 57(4)(a) is such rate as the authority estimate to be equivalent to the reasonable cost of securing the provision of the service concerned.

(17) Section 57(4)(b) permits an authority to make gross direct payments subject to the condition that the payee pays to the authority, by way of reimbursement, an amount or amounts determined under the regulations.

- (a) the prescribed person; or
- (b) a person nominated by him or her to receive the payment on his or her behalf.

Conditions in respect of direct payments

7.—(1) A direct payment shall be subject to the condition that the service in respect of which it is made shall not be secured from a person mentioned in paragraph (2) unless —

- (a) in the case of a relevant service mentioned in regulation 5(2)(a) or (b), the responsible authority are satisfied that securing the service from such a person is necessary to meet satisfactorily the prescribed person's need for that service;
- (b) in the case of a relevant service mentioned in regulation 5(2)(c), the responsible authority are satisfied that securing the service from such a person is necessary for promoting the welfare of the child in need.

(2) The persons are —

- (a) the spouse of the prescribed person;
- (b) a person who lives with the prescribed person as if his or her spouse;
- (c) a person living in the same household as the prescribed person who is his or her —
  - (i) parent or parent-in-law;
  - (ii) son or daughter;
  - (iii) son-in-law or daughter-in-law;
  - (iv) stepson or stepdaughter;
  - (v) brother or sister;
  - (vi) aunt or uncle; or
  - (vii) grandparent;
- (d) the spouse of any person falling within sub-paragraph (c) who lives in the same household as the prescribed person; and
- (e) a person who lives with any person falling within sub-paragraph (c) as if that person's spouse.

(3) Paragraph (2)(c)(ii) and (iii) do not apply in the case of a person mentioned in section 17A(2)(c) of the 1989 Act<sup>(18)</sup>.

(4) A responsible authority may make a direct payment subject to such other conditions (if any) as they think fit.

(5) The conditions referred to in paragraph (4) may, in particular, require that the payee —

- (a) must not secure the relevant service from a particular person;
- (b) must provide such information to the responsible authority as they consider necessary in connection with the direct payment.

Maximum periods of residential accommodation which may be secured by means of a direct payment

8.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), a direct payment may not be made in respect of a prescribed person who falls within regulation 3(1) for the provision to him or her of residential accommodation for a period in excess of 4 weeks in any period of 12 months.

(2) In calculating the period of 4 weeks mentioned in paragraph (1), in any 12 month period—

<sup>(18)</sup> A disabled child aged 16 or 17 is the person mentioned in section 17A(2)(c).

- (a) an initial period in residential accommodation of less than 4 weeks (period A) shall only be added to a succeeding period (period B) where period B begins within 4 weeks of the end of period A; and
  - (b) any period in residential accommodation subsequent to period B shall be included in the calculation.
- (3) A direct payment may not be made in respect of a prescribed person who falls within regulation 4 for the provision of residential accommodation —
- (a) for any single period in excess of 4 weeks; and
  - (b) for any period in excess of 120 days in any period of 12 months.

Displaced functions and obligations of the responsible authority

9.—(1) Except as provided by paragraph (2), the fact that a responsible authority makes a direct payment shall not affect their functions with respect to the provision under the relevant enactment of the service to which the payment relates.

(2) Where a responsible authority makes a direct payment, they shall not be under any obligation with respect to the provision under the relevant enactment of the service to which the payment relates as long as they are satisfied that the need which calls for the provision of the service will be met by the payee's own arrangements.

(3) In paragraphs (1) and (2), references to the relevant enactment are, in relation to the provision of a service, to the enactment under which the service would fall to be provided apart from these Regulations.

Repayment of direct payments

10.—(1) Where a responsible authority which has made a direct payment is satisfied, in relation to the whole or any part of the payment —

- (a) that it has not been used to secure the provision of the relevant service to which it relates; or
- (b) that a condition imposed by or under regulation 7 has not been complied with;

they may require the payment or, as the case may be, the part of the payment to be repaid.

(2) Any sum falling to be repaid by virtue of paragraph (1) shall be recoverable as a debt due to the authority.

Termination of direct payments

11.—(1) Subject to paragraph (3), a responsible authority shall stop making direct payments to a person if —

- (a) he ceases to be a prescribed person; or
- (b) a condition mentioned in regulation 5(3) ceases to be met.

(2) A responsible authority may stop making direct payments to a prescribed person if any condition imposed by or under regulation 7 or referred to in section 57(4)(b) of the 2001 Act<sup>(19)</sup> is not complied with.

(3) Where the person in respect of whom direct payments are made ceases to be capable of managing such payments, a responsible authority may nevertheless continue to make such payments if —

<sup>(19)</sup> Section 57(4)(b) of the 2001 Act permits the responsible authority to make a gross direct payment subject to the condition that the payee pays to it, by way of reimbursement, an amount or amounts determined under regulations. Section 17A(3) of the 1989 Act applies section 57(4)(b) to direct payments under that Act.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (a) they are reasonably satisfied that the person's incapability will be temporary;
- (b) another person is prepared to accept and manage such payments on the incapable person's behalf; and
- (c) the person with whom the arrangement for the provision of the relevant service has been made agrees to accept payment for the services from the person mentioned in subparagraph (b).

Consequential amendments

12. The amendments which were made by regulation 11 of the 2003 Regulations and which are contained in Schedule 2 to these Regulations shall also apply in Wales.
