2005 No. 1812

Street Works (Records) (Wales) Regulations 2005

Interpretation

2. In these Regulations:

“the Act” (“y Ddeddf”) means the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991;

“a geographical information system” (“systemau gwybodaeth daearyddol”) means a computer system for capturing, storing, checking, integrating, manipulating, analysing and displaying data related to spatial locations;

“service pipes and lines” (“pibellau a llinellau cyswllt”) means apparatus of any length of a description contained in paragraph 7(3)(a), (b) or (c) of Schedule 4 to the Act;

“urgent works” (“gwaith brys”) means street works, other than emergency works, whose execution at the time they are executed is required (or which the person responsible for the works believes on reasonable grounds to be required):—to prevent or put an end to an unplanned interruption of any supply or service provided by the undertaker; or

- to avoid substantial loss to the undertaker in relation to an existing service; or
- to reconnect supplies or services where the undertaker would be under a civil or criminal liability if the reconnection is delayed until after the expiration of the appropriate notice period;

and includes works which cannot reasonably be severed from such works.
