

---

WELSH STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

---

2006 No. 1704 (W.166)

FOOD, WALES

The Ceramic Articles in Contact
with Food (Wales) Regulations 2006

Made - - - - - 27 June 2006

Coming into force 30 June 2006

THE CERAMIC ARTICLES IN CONTACT
WITH FOOD (WALES) REGULATIONS 2006

1. Title, Commencement, Extent and Revocation
  2. Interpretation
  3. Limits on the transfer of lead and cadmium
  4. Declaration of Compliance
  5. Enforcement
  6. Offences and penalties
  7. Application of the Food Safety Act 1990
- Signature

---

SCHEDULE 1 MAXIMUM QUANTITIES OF LEAD AND CADMIUM WHICH MAY BE TRANSFERRED FROM A CERAMIC ARTICLE (MIGRATION LIMITS)
The quantity of lead and/or cadmium extracted during the test...

SCHEDULE 2

PART I — BASIC RULES FOR DETERMINING THE MIGRATION OF LEAD AND CADMIUM

1. Test liquid (“simulant”)
2. Test conditions
3. Filling
4. Determination of the surface area

PART 2 — METHODS OF ANALYSIS FOR DETERMINATION OF THE MIGRATION OF LEAD AND CADMIUM

1. Object and field of application
2. Principle

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

3. Reagents
4. Performance criteria of the instrumental method of analysis
5. Method

SCHEDULE DECLARATION OF COMPLIANCE

3

1. (1) The written declaration referred to in regulation 4(1) must...
2. The written declaration will permit an easy identification of the...

Explanatory Note